Men Chases Burgiar to Roof and Fires Shots.

As Alexander Stein and his wife were undressing for bed early to-day in their spartment at No. 128 East Houston street they heard a rattle of sliverware in their dining-room. Rushing in with his revolver, Stein saw a man disappearing up the fire-escape to the roof. Stein followed, firing several shots, bu the man got away down a scuttle

Stein afterward found Pasquals Destefano, fifteen, of No. 15 Stanton street hiding on the roof. Patrolman Nathan Whitman of the Fifth street station took the boy to the Children's Societ and the lad was later arraigned in the Children's Court charged with beining the burgler steal Stein's $150 worth of
